Ramsey, and lived and cohabited with her as husband and wife only about eleven months in this county, when I became convinced that my said wife had been guilty of adultery, and I have not lived or cohabited with her since, I be cmae satisfied of her acts of addütery, which were committed without my consent or connivance; that some of her said acts of adultery were committed in Middlesborough, Ky., and at divers other places, the dates and places of which your orator can not now state,

The object of this suit therefore, is to obtain a divorce fow m the bonds of matrimony existing between your orator and his said wife, To this end he makes the said M. E. Ramsey the party defendant to this bill and asks that she be required to answer the same, but not on oath, that being waived; that on a hearing the relief prayed for be granted him together with all such other, further and general relief as may be suited to his case. And your orator will ever pray &c.
